

JD ALLEN

EUROPEAN TRIO

PROJECT SUMMARY

THE PROJECT

Led by tenor saxophonist JD Allen, this European trio brings his music into an open, agile setting. With Yoni Zelnik on double bass and Thomas Galliano on drums, Allen explores the space between his concise compositions, blues-inflected phrasing and collective improvisation. A chordless format built for attentive listening and direct exchange on stage.

LINE-UP

|                 |                 |
|-----------------|-----------------|
| JD Allen        | Tenor saxophone |
| Yoni Zelnik     | Double bass     |
| Thomas Galliano | Drums           |

TERMS

Travel, accommodation, meals/per diems and backline are to be covered by the presenter. Technical requirements available on request.

JD ALLEN | SHORT BIOGRAPHY

Described by The New York Times as a tenor saxophonist with an enigmatic, elegant and hard-driving style, JD Allen has become a distinctive voice on today's international jazz scene. His singular and compelling sound, shaped by years of dedicated work with the music's fundamentals, has earned him sustained critical recognition among contemporary jazz artists.