ABOUT

Born in August 30, 1986, in Havana, Cuba, Ruy pursued dual training as an instrumentalist in piano and percussion. In 2009, he graduated from the ISA (Higher Institute of Arts, National Conservatory of Havana). This rigorous training and his versatility in performance, supported by exceptional virtuosity, enabled him throughout his career to collaborate with prestigious musicians and groups across diverse musical genres at major jazz festivals and clubs worldwide.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITIONS

- Jazz Composition Contest (SGAE 2021): 1st Prize - Tete Montoliu
- Cubadisco (2021): Award for First Work

Ruy Adrián López-Nussa is undoubtedly marked by the artistic and musical tradition in his family, not only because his father, his uncle and his brother (Ruy, Ernán and Harold) are important contemporary Cuban musicians but also because the artistic world has always been part of his upbringing ever since the time he was a little boy.
